TESTIMONIALS

"Colleen gave a terrific presentation to a group of HR executives on doing business internationally. She is a well-prepared, persuasive speaker and has a solid understanding of international cultural issues."

LAURA EDGERTON

"We were delighted with Colleen's presentation 'Setting Boundaries to Spring Forward: the Role of Balance in Your Professional Success'. Not only did Colleen put forward an innovative approach to fulfillment and productivity, but her presentation also engendered a very lively and engaging discussion among all of the participants. We learned a lot and enjoyed ourselves at the same time. Colleen comes with our high recommendation!"

YAKESH KHANNA

"I was very impressed with Colleen's presentation on 'The Six Emotions o Effective Leaders' I recently attended. What a fresh and insightful perspective for the type of 'new thought' that is in great need for the corporate arena. I highly recommend her as a coach and a speaker. Well done!"

ANNE MARIE BASS

"Colleen came and spoke at the Women in Business luncheon in Wilmington, NC. Her talk, "Gaining a Seat at the Table: Expanding your Visibility and Influence" was well received and a great addition our speaker series. She comes highly recommended."

JENNA CURRY

"Colleen is an international professional with a powerful desire to see others evolve to their greatness. She has a flair for connecting with people from all backgrounds and from all parts of any organization. She also has a strong drive, and the talent to match, to achieve excellent results."

ROSEMARY ALLAN

"Thank you for an amazing session on the 'Six Emotions That Shape Leaders'. I was most impressed with your presentation skills as well as the message. I have surely learnt a lot & know these new skills will be a bigger help in the near future. For once, I was able to stay focused and walk away with the most important lessons for the corporate world."
